APR 15 1981

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

JOSEPH McELROY, JR., CLERK
BY Pat Spears
DeputyMISCELLANEOUS ORDER NO. 31

Any person who is detained and incarcerated in the Northern District of Texas solely for the purpose of insuring such person's attendance at a criminal trial as a material witness therein shall not be incarcerated for more than fourteen days with the following exceptions:

When such a person has been incarcerated for fourteen days the United States Attorney shall report such fact immediately to the Judge of this Court to whom the case has been assigned and shall secure permission from such Judge to continue such incarceration beyond the fourteen-day period. The United States Attorney shall secure permission every succeeding fourteen days thereafter in order to retain custody of such material witness, and in the event such permission is not obtained the prisoner shall be forthwith released.

In the event that the Judge to whom the case is assigned does not give permission for continued incarceration, such material witness shall be immediately released from custody.

It is so ORDERED this the 14th day of APRIL, 1981.
